re: Federal Insurance Company, et al. v. al-Qaida, et al., Case Number 03-CV-6978 (RCC)

Dear Mr. LaMura:

I am writing regarding the Court's request for service of a summons, complaint and notice of suit pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1608(a)(4) upon defendant the Islamic Republic of Iran in the above mentioned lawsuit. Because the United States does not maintain diplomatic relations with the government of Iran, the Department of State is assisted by the Foreign Interests Section of the Embassy of Switzerland in Teheran in delivering these documents to the Iranian Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

The documents were delivered to the Iranian Ministry of Foreign Affairs under cover of diplomatic note number 1050-IE dated December 7, 2004. While service under 28 U.S.C. 1608(a)(4) is effective upon delivery of the diplomatic note, the documents were subsequently returned to the Foreign Interests Section of the Swiss Embassy in Teheran.

In accordance with the procedures established for the implementation of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, enclosed are two copies of the summons, complaint and notice of suit, one as proof of service and one returned to the Swiss Embassy, along with certified copies of the diplomatic notes used to transmit them.

Should you have any questions regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me at (202) 736-9115.

EMBASSY OF SWITZERLAND

No. 1050-IE

The Embassy of Switzerland, Foreign Interests Section, in Tehran presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Islamic Republic of Iran and has the honor to refer the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Islamic Republic of Iran to the lawsuit Federal Insurance Company, et al. v. al-Qaida, et al. which is pending in the U.S. Federal District Court for the Southern District of New York, case No. 03-CV-6978 (RCC). The Islamic Republic of Iran is a defendant in this case. The Foreign Interests Section herewith transmits a summons and complaint herewith. The U.S. Federal District Court has requested the transmittal of these documents. This note constitutes transmittal of these documents upon the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran as contemplated in Title 28, United States Code, Section 1608 (a)(4) and 1608(e).

Under applicable U.S. law a defendant in a lawsuit must file an answer to the complaint or some other responsive pleading within 60 days for the date of transmittal of the complaint, in this case the date of this note. Failing to do so, a defendant risks the possibility of having judgment entered against it without the opportunity to present arguments or evidence on its behalf. Therefore, the Foreign Interests Section requests that the enclosed summons and complaint be forwarded to the appropriate authority of the Islamic Republic of Iran with a view towards taking whatever steps are necessary to avoid a default judgment.

In addition to the summons and complaint, the Foreign Interests Section is enclosing a notice of suit prepared by the plaintiff, which summarizes the nature of the case and includes references to U.S. laws concerning suits against foreign States.

The Foreign Interests Section has been advised that under the laws of the United States, any jurisdictional or other defense including claims of sovereign immunity must be addressed to the court before which the matter is pending, for which reason it is advisable to consult an attorney in the United States. Otherwise proceedings will continue without an opportunity to present arguments or evidence. It is the practice of the U.S. Department of State to be available to discuss the requirements of U.S. law with counsel. The U.S. Government is not a party to this case and cannot represent other parties in this matter.

The Embassy of Switzerland, Foreign Interests Section, avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Islamic Republic of Iran the assurances of its highest consideration.

CONS/11/29/2004/636

The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Sudan and has the honor to refer the Ministry to the lawsuit entitled "Federal Insurance Company, et al. v. Al-Qaida, et al.," which is pending in the Federal District Court for the Southern District of New York, Case No. 3-CV-978 (RCC) in which the Government of the Republic of Sudan is a defendant.

The Embassy herewith transmits a Notice of Suit with summons and complaint. This note constitutes transmittal of these documents to the Government of Sudan as contemplated in Title 28, United States Code, Section 1608(a)(4).

Under applicable United States law a defendant in a lawsuit must file an answer to the complaint or some other responsive pleading within sixty (60) days from the date of transmittal of the complaint (i.e., the date of this Diplomatic Note) or face the possibility of having final judgment entered against it without the opportunity of presenting evidence or arguments in its behalf. Accordingly, the Embassy requests that the enclosed summons, complaint and notice of suit be forwarded to the appropriate authority of the Republic of Sudan with a view towards taking whatever steps are necessary to avoid a default judgment.
